

I'm Good

Natalie Jane

Thanks
For telling me that you never felt this way
And promising you'd never go away
It's the first time I ever felt that safe
I swear
I was safe, I swear

Thanks
For leaving me without telling me goodbye
For leaving me with no explanation why
It was the first time I fell for a lie
I swear
I was blind, I swear

Words like scissors, you cut my heart in half
Torn up pictures
Oh, who the hell was that
Stuck a knife in
Funny now you wan't me back
And that's too bad

Oooh

I'm good
I'm good
I'm good
I'm good luv
I'm actually doing better than I ever was
I'm going up
Don't interrupt, I miss you, but I'm good
I'm good
I'm good I'm good luv

I'm good I'm good I'm good I'm good luv
These days I'm doing better than I ever was
Don't hit me up
Not picking up
I miss you but
I'm good I'm good I'm good luv

Yea you hit me up and you want me back
But to be honest, I'm good love
You callin back
And you need me bad
I always knew that you would love
She loves the way that I pop these tags
Say she need that birken bag
I know you just want my racks
Yea yeah yea yeah (oh yea)

You tried to tell me cut off all my friends (oh yea)
But my dogs with me we ain't ever gon' end (oh yea)
Yea we knew you was shady from the jump jump jump
Yea that's why you be callin when you drunk drunk drunk

You up in the club and you takin these shots
All of a sudden you calling again

You toxic as fuck but I'm cutting you off
And then all of a sudden I'm ballin again

I'm good luv
I'm good luv
I'm good im good I'm good I'm good I'm good luv

I'm good
I'm good
I'm good
I'm good luv
I'm actually doing better than I ever was
I'm going up
Don't interrupt, I miss you but I'm good

I'm good
I'm good
I'm good
I'm good luv
These days I'm doing better than I ever was
Don't hit me up
I miss you but
I'm good
I'm good
I'm good luv

Nobody told me
Nobody told me how
Nobody warned me
How we were doomed to drown
I figured it out by myself
Damaging my mental health
I swear I was blind, I swear
