Natalie Jane

After thought, was I an after thought
Shook me like an earthquake, now there's aftershock
Was it real? Was it real? Was it real?
Now he says he needs space like an astronaut

Novocaine in goodbye
Numb my pain, tell me why
Oh why, oh why, oh why

Tattoos hurt less than what you put me through
Ooh
No ink, no stain, just permanent pain
You don't break like I do
It's brutal
Engrave your name straight into my veins
Tattoos hurt less than you
You
Tattoos hurt less than

Showing up two hours late
Excuses that you couldn't face
Didn't help that you were wasted
Whiskey on your tongue, Chanel Number 1
Do you think I'm dumb?

Novocaine in goodbye
Numb my pain, tell me why
Oh why, oh why, oh why

Tattoos hurt less than what you put me through
Ooh
No ink, no stain, just permanent pain
You don't break like I do
It's brutal
Engrave your name straight into my veins

Tattoos hurt less than you
You
Tattoos hurt less than you
You

Tattoos hurt less than you
You, you
Tattoos hurt less than you
