

Violently

Natalie Prass

The turning of space
You can't stop a train
Only in time
Will it start to fade
And I feel the same
I can't stop my strength
I want to reach out
But I don't know which way
And I'll break my legs
Cause they want to walk to you

Just wanna know you violently
Oh, I've had enough of talking politely
And the red is there, it's all over me
It's over eloquently

Ooh, each day I hide
The extent of my mind
I put away things alright
Two companions night
But I wish I could chip it off
Wish for evidence
Hoping as long as you'll hear
My secret's confessed
And I'll break my arms
Cause they want to hold you

Just wanna know you violently
Oh, I've had enough of talking politely
And the red is there, it's all over me
It's over eloquently

And I'll break all my bones
Cause they all, they all want you

Just wanna know you violently
Oh, I've had enough of talking politely
And the red is there, it's all over me
It's over eloquently
