Lost My Shadow

Natalie Walker

I wanted something better
No more monotony
I need to find my way
I wanted something better
No more monotony
I need to find my way

I lost my shadow somewhere
Now I am incomplete
This place is wearing me thin

My shadow sleeps on the outside
She is far away
Her strength is fading fast

She says "it's cold and I'm so tired"
She's all I ever had
Now she might not come back

He cut her free
It felt so wrong
But I didn't say a thing
Now I am walking shadow-less streets
Without her here to keep me company

Come back to me...

She's got every single memory
My mind is empty
When she's not with me

If she fades she takes me with her
But I'm not ready
Don't take my past from me

He cut her free
It felt so wrong
But I didn't say a thing
Now I am walking shadow-less streets
Without her here to keep me company

Come back to me...
