Poison
Into my eyes
Swallow
Into my eyes
Swallow
All of the lies
I'm trying my hardest
Not to be a target
Don't try to save me
I'm going my own way

You must think that I'm a fool
Butterfly in winter out of my cocoon
Now the wind blows so bitterly
I will never know my destiny

I could have gone your way
Something inside wasn't right
I tried to please you
To do just as you asked
I followed you
I swear I tried my best

You must think that I'm a fool
Butterfly in winter out of my cocoon
Now the wind blows so bitterly
I will never know my destiny

Now the world is mine
I'm flying all alone
I can see for miles clearly in the glow
You may think I'm scared but I know I am okay
In this moment I am safe
