

Only Love

Natalie Walker

Your palace may fall
Remember to keep standing tall
You'll treasure the good things
Your palace may fall
Remember to keep standing tall
You'll treasure the good things
The pain a grain of salt

You are so small
Your heart is brand new
And I will protect it with all that I've got
I only hope that you will feel love
Only love

There may come a day
You'll want to hide away
They might hurt your heart
But I know you'll find your place

You are so small
Your heart is brand new
And I will protect it with all that I've got
I only hope that you will feel love
Only love

I hope we find what it is we're looking for
I know this is right
This is right
When you smile
All my doubts melt away
So unsure of it all until I see your face
