Nathan Dawe

I used to think I couldn't be without you, be without you
Now that you're gone, I feel happy as hell (KSI, Nathan Dawe, ah)

When you said it was over
I knew I'd fallen too deep
You made my world feel perfect
Then pulled it from under my feet

I cried for a minute
For a while, I was tryin' to figure out what went wrong
Now I finally get it
And I see I don't need you to be here, I'm movin' on

I used to think I couldn't be without you, be without you
Now that you're gone, I feel happy as hell
Weight off of me (Ayy)
I can breathe without you, breathe without you (It's Window Kid)
Now that you're gone, I feel lighter ('Nother joint)

I feel lighter, I feel risen (risen)
I feel like I been let out prison, almost whip this skill
She was an opposition (Yeah)
Great vision, but raw, couldn't listen (Nah)
Irony, I know, 'cause I could have focus
I was sittin' the S-T, focus
She was out for the peas and burners
She was out for the peas and burners, carb
We're goin' on now, we not stealin' doors
I went to Zanti's with Nathan Dawe
And he bought me a white cube steak
And that's why I chill with Nathan more (More)
And now you know what rhymin' is
And you know what a label signin' is
Is with their kid, KSI and Nathan Dawe
You know what time it is

I used to think I couldn't be without you, be without you
Now that you're gone, I feel happy as hell
Weight off of me
I can breathe without you, breathe without you
Now that you're gone, I feel lighter
I used to think I couldn't be without you, be without you
Now that you're gone, I feel happy as hell
Weight off of me
I can breathe without you, breathe without you (Ayy, ayy)
Now that you're gone, I feel lighter (Nathan)

I'm feelin' so good like a fat man with a peng ting (Yeah)
Feelin' so high like a black Yao Ming (Ayy)
Call me Godzilla 'cause I got a big part (Uh)
Went through war, got a purple heart
Needed my space, time, recovery
Now man's ace, quick, summary
New discovery, losin' that weight
Post on the 'Gram 'cause I'm just bait
I'm way too slick with it (Woo), John Wick with it (Woo)
I'm takin' bare shots in a quick minute (Ayy)

More drinks with it, bare sick with it (Come on)
Still end up in a bed with a chick in it (Mad)
VVS1 on my chain, bust down
Been through a lot, now a man's got a crown (It's mad)
KSI verified, stay schemin', self-believin', you know I

I used to think I couldn't be without you, be without you
Now that you're gone, I feel happy as hell
Weight off of me
I can breathe without you, breathe without you
Now that you're gone, I feel lighter (Lighter)

Lighter, lighter, I feel like the lightest
I'm still a fat boy, but it still shows I'm righteous (Haha)
Backyard with a big back and a tightest
If it's heavy, that's what matter, you can't ride that
I might hit (Woo) 'cause I'm focused on the grindin'
Money spent well, I don't waste all time in shinin'
'Cause I been views, I been linin' (Ah)
That man out there climbin', on a bad mountain (Ah)
It's funny, but I don't laugh, I mix 'em down, fools
You just boxed yourself in, now, you're around rules (Ugh)
Me, I did it differently, the back, from the out rules (Ah)
I'm the king, so when I rain, my downpour
The way I came up, start war for not
Bucks, still haters get bangin' south for (Bah)
What would you be do? I bought more, beams and they get clout for

I used to think I couldn't be without you, be without you
Now that you're gone, I feel happy as hell
Weight off of me
I can breathe without you, breathe without you
Now that you're gone, I feel lighter

(Gone) I feel lighter
(Gone) I feel lighter
(Gone) I feel lighter
(Gone) I feel lighter
(Gone) I feel lighter
(Gone) I feel lighter (Oh, no)
Now that you're gone, I feel lighter
