

Always Good

Nathaniel Bassey

Good good God
You're a mighty mighty good good God
Jesus

You're always good
You're always kind
When the skies are blue, when there is no dew
It doesn't matter what happens
Good is who You are
Not just the things You do
One thing I know, You're always good
You are always kind

You're always good
You're always kind
When the skies are blue, when there is no dew
It doesn't matter what happens
'Cause good is who You are
Not just the things You do, yeah
One thing I know, You're always good
Always kind, hey

You're always good
You're always kind
When the skies are blue, when there is no dew
It doesn't matter what happens
Good is who You are
Not just the things You do
One thing I know, You're always good
You're always kind

You're always good, You're always good

You're always good
You're always kind
When the skies are blue, when there is no dew
It doesn't matter what happens
Good is who You are
Not just the things You do
One thing I know, You're always good
You're always kind

You are good and Your mercy endures forever
You are good and Your mercy endures forever
You are good and Your mercy endures forevermore
You are good and Your mercy endures forever
You are good and Your mercy endures forever
You are good and Your mercy endures forevermore

You are good and Your mercy endures forever
You are good and Your mercy endures forever
You are good and Your mercy endures forevermore
You are good and Your mercy endures forever
You are good and Your mercy endures forever
You are good and Your mercy endures forevermore

You are good and Your mercy endures forever

You are good and Your mercy endures forever
You are good and Your mercy endures forevermore
You are good and Your mercy endures forever
You are good and Your mercy endures forever
You are good and Your mercy endures forevermore

You are good and Your mercy endures forever
You are good and Your mercy endures forever
You are good and Your mercy endures forevermore
You are good and Your mercy endures forever
You are good and Your mercy endures forever
You are good and Your mercy endures forevermore

You are always good
You're always kind
When the skies are blue, when there is no dew
It doesn't matter what happens
Good is who You are
Not just the things You always do and give and give and give
One thing I know, You're always good
You're always kind

One thing I know
You're always good, You're always kind

One thing I know
You're always good, You're always kind
