

You Are You

Nathaniel Bassey

Shout hallelujah

You are you
You are you, you are you
You are you
You are you, you are you
You are you
You are you, you are you
Baba you are you
You are you, you are you

Give him a shout of praise

You are you
You are you, you are you
You are merciful
You are you, you are you
You are beautiful
You are you, you are you
You are wonderful
You are you, you are you
You are glorious
You are you, you are you
You are faithful Lord
You are you, you are you
You are good
You are you, you are you
You are wonderful
You are you, you are you

You are who you say you are
There's no other God like you
You're the ancient of days
Seated on the flaming throne
You are you, you are you
You are you, you are you

You are who you say you are
There's no other God like you
You're the ancient of days
Seated on the flaming throne
You are you, you are you
You are you, you are you

You are holy
You are you, you are you
You are worthy
You are you, you are you
You are mighty
You are you, you are you
You are awesome
You are you, you are you
You are Jesus
You are you, you are you
We call you Yahweh
You are you, you are you

The I am that I am
What you say is what you do
You're the same yesterday
Same today, forever more
You are you, you are you
You are you, you are you

The I am that I am
You are you, you are you
You are you, you are you

You are who you say you are
There's no other God like you
You're the ancient of days
You are you, you are you (Almighty father)
You are you, you are you (Altogether worthy)
You are you, you are you (Altogether worthy)
You are you, you are you

The I am that I am
You are you, you are you (Nobody else)
You are you, you are you
You are you, you are you (Lion of Judah)
You are you (Rose of Sharon), you are you (He's my redeemer)
You are you, you are you

You are who you say you are
There's no other God like you
You're the ancient of days
You are who you say you are
There's no other God like you
You're the ancient of days
You are you, you are you
You are you
