

Memetic Infection

Natrium

Brutality in the pursuit of chastity
Superstitions infects
Those who impose purity
A meme deep rooted in their minds
Centuries of tribal traditions
Synthesized in cruelty
Inane mutilations
There is no religion that can justify

Improptu surgery with rudimentary tools
Citorisephtomy infibulation
Suffering to avoid carnal pleasure
As demanded by your god

Infections take place
Their failure lead to death
Of their so called loved ones
But faith it's supreme and traditions
Are stronger than love

[solo a. Locci]

Genealogic trees sink roots in sick soil
Manured with ignorance and discrimination
Generations inherit their haunting meme
Spreading the infections to save the traditions
They decide to corrupt foreign doctors
To sexually mutilate their sons
Feeding with their money
The mutilation trade
In the name of an absurd belief
