

True Friends (and Family)

Naturally 7

There is no place, nowhere around
There is no place, that can be found
Nowhere that I, would rather be
Than with true friends and family

Yes I may roam from shore to shore
Exciting places to explore
But when life's trials swirl around me
I seek true friends and family

You lift me up and set me free
So I can be all, all that I can be
Up with the best of humanity
Found in true friends and family
Reunion times from year to year
Bring so much joy with those who care
Fine memories, my identity
Are deep in friends and family

Sometimes I think of doing wrong
Then I remember who I am
What would they say, should I betray
All my true friends and family

Found in true friends and family
