

System Break-down

Nausea

Never clear about suggestion breaking down your sense of values tie in a system were your confine crucify for the needs of others.

your voice has spoken without a response
what this so-called government does not hear your crys.

how wrong can it be put your trust in the system the freedom that you spare is the power they consume.

trap in a system
condemn for ones life
the choice that you make the world surrounding you.
