Met her at the club, I had to take her home just so I can see the rest of her
Took her number, but before I text her back I'll probably send a messenger

Never worry 'bout a chick 'cause I just been stacking chips like a kettler
Gotta be special if she in my car, it only take one passenger

Nothing that I do is basic, I bought her bag, she could've got a Challenger
All my watches big face, all my bezels got diameter
All this goddamn ice on my neck, I can walk in and change the temperature
I know that she feeling me
Catch a attitude, I never fret 'cause catching checks my ability
She try to google my net worth just to see I'm a millionaire literally
The bag I could drop on your head is way to big for you to belittle me
My opps going broke as a joke, are you kidding me?
