

On My Own

NAV

Remember sitting on the bench wearing the same clothes
They used to call me ugly, had the blackberry with no hoes
Now she calling on my iPhone Rose Gold
Bitch I'm in LA for two days then I'm going home
I don't want to see your panties now, I just want the dome
Driving down Santa Monica with a Asian ting
Wondering what this fame will bring, Gucci belts and diamond rings
I hope this shit don't change me, my best friend starting hate me
Girlfriend moving shady, she can't trust me now
I'm standing on the ground but Xanny's got me in the cloud
Things are looking up, I still remember looking down
The labels call me up, but Ima always shut 'em down

Cause I did this on my own, did this on my own yeah
I don't need no help, I rather do it by myself
Because I did this on my own, did this on my own yeah
Don't ask me something, I don't owe you nothing
Did this on my own, I did this on my own yeah
I did this on my own yeah
Did this on my own, can't tell me nothing

Heard someone say Nav is done, I'm just getting started
They said I wouldn't make it probably because of my image
Coach put me in the game, these fuckboys still playing scrimmage
Just bought the foreign with no tints, just want you to see when I'm in it
Start something for me, best believe you'll be finished
My momma called me for a hour ain't been home in a minute
I won't drink that sprite without promethazine in it
I just bought some water and the molly came wit it
Once you get a little money, a lot of problems come with it
Got my city speculating, cause there's owls on my linen
They gonna ditch you when you're losing and come back when you're win ning
That's why I can't trust nobody, knew it from the beginning

That's why I did this on my own, did this on my own yeah
I don't need no help, I rather do it by myself
Because I did this on my own, did this on my own yeah
Don't ask me something, I don't owe you nothing
Did this on my own, I did this on my own yeah
I did this on my own yeah
Did this on my own, can't tell me nothing

Did this on my own, I did this on my own yeah
I did this on my own yeah
Did this on my own, can't tell me nothing
Can't tell me nothing
