

Affirmative Action

Navy Blue

We're going to try something out

If I call your phone is you gone answer?
Petty banter niggas tryna get like me like I'm David Banner
Peep the handles these are Kyrie standards
Don't think about it too much sampha
If I'm the son then who the Samford?
Hurt the most when Papa died to cancer Navy Blue the chancellor
Navy blew the candles out and danced around the answers
Question me all the time that's why I'm scared of taking chances
Left my pride alone it's nothing left to tamper with
Find me off of troop eating catfish sandwiches
Looking at you niggas like where the fuck your manage went?
Looking at you niggas lives like how the fuck you manage it?
Looking in my sisters eyes and seeing all that abandonment
Bruises on my abdomen admit that I'm not sad as shit
Found a way to speak my mind and life provide the canvases
I'm the one who threw the dime I'm a 9 and trust I ran with it
Neymar Jr hurt Oklahoma Sooner well I sooth the hurt
Killing them defenders on the wing like Mbappé
St. Germain LA legend like [?]
Looking for my purpose like a needle in a block of hay
Mama I would say that trauma get a lot of praise nonsense
Find this way through my scattered brain conscience
Nowadays I couldn't make a promise
The last one I made I fucked up just being honest
Seek solace wasn't numb I was just at my calmest
Open wounds my word was sprinkle salting
That trap door I seen but I ain't falling
My lonely home that I've been know to sulk in
I found some peace I had to put the bulk in

Tell these saltine crackers that they got no business rapping quit the capping

What the fuck happened to affirmative action?

Tree sap thick I keep dripping Jesus died at 33 like Scott Pippen
Not Larry sacred Bonds is like Barry

Another hit another nigga living scary while others getting buried
Mm
