

Who gon' save me now?
I done found a reason
I made meaning of this grace I found
Got up off the ground
This L is for the learning
Nothing urgent, I resurfaced
It's a sermon, I ain't burden bound
I got purpose, I ain't perfect
But I'm certain, right
I can't turn in spite, emerging from this burning light
What I've earned is mine
I ran it at my furthest line
The hands of turning time
A earnest tryna search and find
Tunnel vision blinded by the mission I reside in Spot a goal and dive in
I'm out for growth and guidance
Five aside, we out for battle, this is do or die
Who gon' rise from under tides and keep their eyes above it
Strength in numbers
Winning ain't place for comfort
Run a race or suffer
Best to know your days are numbered
We triumphant bombs away, he must be taking cover
I was smothered but I hit that shot before the buzzer
Bang

I feel like Dolla (Feel like Dolla)
Zero, zero, zero, you know I'm about my commas (About my commas)
I'm on my De Niro, trust me, you don't want no problems, man
Bombs and bows and arrows, I was locked in on the title (I'm locked in, bang
)
I feel like Dolla (Feel like Dolla)
Zero, zero, zero, you know I'm about my commas (About my commas)
I'm on my De Niro, trust me, you don't want no problems, man
Bombs and bows and arrows, I was locked in on the title (I'm locked in)

Ready, set, go
Indebted, full-fledged
I'm bringing it home
I'm bringing it home
You get it, spin webs and catch it, best know
Took my oath, the code of honor, I'm a soldier, dog
They hate to see me balling, I can't hold 'em off
You should've took your chance but that moment gone
Can't give a problem no problems 'cause my shoulders strong
I was just speaking my peace, I was just breaking the mold
I am not taking defeat 'cause I done been in it before
I give my enemy buckets, I know the victory's sweet
Ain't no way I'ma rush it, ain't going on a seven-0 sweep
On my bully, I'm on ten
On that court I ain't got friends
Who is you, dog? I don't know
I don't break, I just bend
I be sliding in the groove, I don't teder on no fence
I go stupid, I go dumb like I ain't got no sense
