

Let it go
I never knew that this life was hard, it seems
Just where I'm supposed to be
Just where I wanna be
And I've known
I always grow from the times of darkness and
Deceit haunting me
Can't stop from loving me
I'm at home
I miss my Mama, Grandma, and Pa so much
I see 'em in my dreams every single night
Feelings flow
Sage was different, so kind and humbled by
His parents made him see three hundred sixty degrees
'Round the Earth
I found my worth and my heart at ease
My God is present working with the spirit of the sea
Digging dirt
I had to bury my pride, most all of it
I kept my self-esteem
I'm saving some for me
All this hurt
It made me stronger I see much further than Before, trust in me, love the remedy
