

I just got my hair did up, looking like Pop Smoke
On some real West Coast shit
Navy

They say it's funny how life work Spirit my life serves I'm learning in spite words just come to me right first
I've managed to night surf my burdens in plight
Karma lend on the right nerves my worries in sight Pick apart what is right there with all of my might Summer meet me at daybreak I tussle with gripe Vanish the desolate light source I pummel the wall Couldn't function at all I put my all in these songs
The love that I was looking for was there all along There we're tears terror veers and lands as the reflection in t he mirror
With tears gathering my beard say that less is more I kept it g oing all these years now I'm a better man Settle with my mind clearing at ease
That grief isn't common here I could be anywhere but notice tha t my Papa near Standing on top of my fears I solemnly swear I wouldn't dare to try to hurt myself again immersed within my circle of sense
Forgiveness couldn't work when I was hurting within
I had a lot on my mind what is perfect my friend?
I seek progression gratitude of breath I breathe with every sec ond
Gather at the nexus I got to do my best this before I exit scra tch it off the checklist
I sort the heaven yeah he my man's but he kinda sort of more br edren
Since the youngin you taught me to stay level headed Cool headed cool running sun is beaming overhead dresses Blessings get gathered by the second
And get gathered by the second

No matter how tough life get don't stress it Don't stress it
No matter how tough life get don't stress it count blessings
No matter how tough life get don't stress it count blessings
No matter how tough life get don't stress it
Don't stress it uh
Uh yeah yeah yeah
