Navy Blue

Like I'm in the...
Like I'm in the past or something
Like I'm in the...
Like I'm in the past or something
Like I'm in the...
Like I'm in the...
Like I'm in the past or something
Like I'm in the...
Like I'm in the...

Like I'm in the past or something, I ain't asked for much
Matter fact I ain't asked for none from you to me
Confused I bruise my feet in tune I choose repeat
This life is priceless, nothing isn't cheap
Plummet in the earth, my body's underneath
My poppa in the wall, my worries in the creek
Discouraged bummy me determined huntin' free
My purpose done indeed
In turn I run for freedom, free at last
Found a reason we would crash and found relief
Music is the key, I proved it many times
A shrine within the trees
Cried until I couldn't cry, I had to bleed
Had to see the other side in times of grief
Best believe I needed mines and rhymes relief
Cold outside, my coldest times ain't had no fire in me left
No fire in me left, just check in with my pops
I left it at his yard
December was a plot, my January scarred
Scared to let him go, prepare to live it large
Paying off the debt, the detriment alone
Press the skipping stones, divide divide
I dive towards the goal, I blessed this scorchin' soul
Them blessings were bestowed upon me, let him know
Them blessings were bestowed upon me, let him know
Demons off me, had to let 'em go
Worries on me, have to let it go
My worthless sorries Hari Kari carved in stone
Deadly scowls howl at the moon
Demons off me, had to let 'em go
Worries on me, have to let 'em go
Worthless sorries Hari Kari carved in stone
Deadly scowls howl at the moon
Howl at the...

Living in the past or something
Y'all must've had a...
Living in the past or something
Living in the...
Living in the past or something
Living in the...
Living in the past or something
Living in the...
Living in the past or something
Living in the past or something
Living in the past or something
