

Known Unknowns

Navy Blue

Shoo

Yeah

Mama's they crying like somebody died silver ain't turning to g old

Living my life on rewind I'm doing just fine my nigga I'm grown Cruising home on my time bruises were barely shown

Trueness still divide right down the middle side the fold

Told me to pick a side cause balance ain't what we were sold

Looking deeper every time I fell away away from home finally

It's a house without a roof I spit the palm this treasure in my palms are written wrongs I'm chanting on

I reached 100 mark 100 yards the hippodrome hypnosis switch sho ulders as I greet the host

The clay is multi led the shelter made of loan castle in the st one Lalibela seen his catacombs and then he froze

My pilgrimage was done and cold remorse flows tortured soul tra pped off and sang aside of songs

My road map still intact I learned to bear the blow

Carried the single source of life towards the brome in the chro mosome stretch divide conquer bone break

What it takes will not surmount the unknown

It's known knowns, known unknowns

Unknown unknowns, the things I wish I didn't know

Things we don't know that we don't know

Things I keep close, hurting just to let it go, I gotta let it go

It's known knowns, known unknowns

Unknown unknowns, the things I wish I didn't know
