

loveship [empathy]

Navy Blue

Navy Blue, truest
Three times, yeah
Three times, lucky four times
For a day, yeah

I been awfully lonely, spirits latching on me
Iridescent soul, either opal or tourmaline
If you've ever known me better listen closely
Yemaya tryna take me while my father hold me
Near when the washes crash, here when the pain lash out
I'm down and out, can't get them days back
Now I'm on a sunny path
I have my hands clasped together
Brother here in spirit, though I never met him
Pops said, fear was demons out to get him
Minds clash, intellectuals on higher levels
Coarse hair perpetuates with grace, we all disheveled
Praise to my god in armor, all metal
She a Taurus but she gentle
At times, I don't wanna live but know I'm meant to
They see my smile, solely ornamental
Can't reach my brother, know the love went through
For all that we been through
Alone in a room surrounded by crashing cymbals
Symbolic, no face for a prophet
I was dismissive, feared the person that my pops really was

Mm, for all that we been through
