Navy Blue

Yeah, man

This away, that away, admit this shit is sad to say
I miss when I was in touch with happiness a laugh away
Life happens, blood gathered on my face, I watch it all shattered

Picking up a piece a day, my piece is what I'm after Tattletale, I told my fate to wait and take it backwards
Settle where I'm off in stake, supportive of this chapter
Lately this is how I feel, I hope the healing pass
And life is but a mystery, it's never to be mastered
The closer that I get, the further I resist
It don't matter, it does matter
Projection with a passion, burning sun's wrath
The disruption of one paths, I'm tongue tied Cry wolf from love last, my love dies
Wings would flutter from the ash, permit my flooded eyes, tears welling
Well involved, my summer pride
I keep changing for keep sake
I keep in mind my dark days dangerous flaming
Burning from the ground up, sanctions, rations
Rationally give it to the masses, my soul tatted
I'm Tatar and she Apache
Asleep, meet me in the backseat
It's been a thousand weeks since our last meeting
With true meaning, me and you couldn't face me
But he told the truth, I saw reversal, know it hurt the most to let it stoop
But slow cooking, bright gold, hold the L
Took him when my father wasn't looking

So every good action sets up a good bridge
And in your journey to get to that, that safer place, that good place, you know umm...

And again you know that the old paradigm, I can see the old paradise

For who but then they bring a lot of warning, they bring a lot of this and that, you know

I respect the order they try to create, you know

But it's still a very much a slave order

You know, all religions...

And this gonna become a new paradigm that doesn't really deal with that type of thing

That kind of fantasy

Hopefully... people are gonna empower themselves they're gonna see that God live within them

And that they have acted as something that they haven't yet hel ped you out
