

Simultaneously Bleeding

Navy Blue

We speak far too much of this shit into existence, my nigga. This can't be real. It's inexplicable, my nigga
Nigga, simultaneously bleeding. It's all worth it. It's all worth it, my nigga, I swear. Yeah

Surprised like I ain't tell you, told you I'd get over
Trickle down effects, my mother made a soldier
Shoulders ain't for crying on, my brother know
Hold him close, privately we cope
Tyrants sweep the coast 'round the Cape
Horns blazing, I know when they approach
Bouncing off the storm, watch it go up in smoke
And those whom I adorn can't contemplate no mo'
This is precious oak
I can't see no faces, clergy wearing cloaks
Most these people racist, get up off my path
Spirits get evoked, all I can do is laugh
And live this life, it's haunted by the past
Stare from lonely eyes, I know 'em way too well
See him way too much wherever he is at
He know I hate his guts, my spirit can't be touched
My spirit can't be touched
My spirit can't be touched, my spirit can't be touched
I started caring 'less 'bout what they say from jump
Seen from sacred views, Navy Blue
It all gets undone
It all gets undone, we seeing through
It all gets undone
