God Save the South

Nazareth

It was a red hot night night in mobile Sweat glistened on the reverends chin His mohair suit was shinin

He told us all about sin

It could be wall to wall in wall street
We could be livin hand to mouth
Jesus loved a yankee
But God saved the south

Across the street in the pool hall Bubba put the eight ball down Its a high five celebration They passed the jack around

Its wall to wall in wall street
Were livin hand to mouth
Jesus loved a yankee
But God saved the south

God saved the south Yankee boy shut your mouth Yes, God saved the south Yankee boy shut your mouth Shut your mouth

Some long haired boys with guitars Playin behind the chicken wire They're goin up to new york city Gonna sing about atlantas fire

It could be wall to wall in wall street
We could be livin hand to mouth
Jesus loved a yankee
But God saved the south

And God saved the south Yankee boy shut your mouth Yes, God saved the south Yankee boy shut your mouth

Yes, God saved the south Yankee boy shut your mouth And God saved the south So,yankee boy shut your mouth

And God saved the south
Yankee boy shut your mouth
Yes, God saved the south
So, yankee boy shut your mouth

God saved the south So, yankee boy shut your mouth
