[English translation:]

(It's too much) It's too much, your white legs
It's too much, your red lips
Un Bel Viso, all of you
Makes me imagine an image of an angel
Only mine, you got to be mine
I can't open my eyes. Do you see me?
None of the beautiful words that exist
Can explain you
You got it
Beautiful girl, I like you
It's love at first sight

I saw an angel
When I first saw you
You shined like an angel from heaven
I got curious
Who do you resemble to be that beautiful?
I'll be your morning star,
And you are my angel,
You are my angel
I'll be your morning star,
And you are my angel,
You are my angel

Girl hey girl, girl what's your name
No wait, no let me talk first
You can be my moonlight and sunshine and
Morning day
They're all names that suit you
Angel, that's you
Let's go up to the clouds let's fly

What do I do? I like you so much
It's love at first sight

I saw an angel
When I first saw you
You shined like an angel from heaven
I got curious

Who do you resemble to be that beautiful?
I'll be your morning star,
And you are my angel,
You are my angel
I'll be your morning star,
And you are my angel,
You are my angel

Sometimes, I'm afraid
Your smile that's so beautiful
What if it's fake?
Are you a fox wearing a mask of an angel?
I'm actually worried

I saw the face of an angel
Saw the face of an angel
Face of an angel

I saw an angel
When I first saw you
Who do you resemble to be that beautiful?
I'll be your morning star,
And you are my angel,
You are my angel
I'll be your morning star,
And you are my angel,
