We on
I know what you waiting for
Wall to wall

Every line, every bar I've been spittin'
When can I hit the full stop?
Orange sky of the Seoul night
Write my name high above it
Because you remember me
The eternal meaning of my name carries
To hide away your tears
I won't turn on the lights, yet
I'm right here
May we cherish this moment forever
I'm right here
May I be myself wherever, whenever
I'm right here

Everywhere
Always
I will be there

Wind it back
I'm picturing that one scene
I'm in the studio day and night
Every night shined brighter than the stars
Even when they told me to be cautious
I don't have any buttons, just on and off
I always want to have pride in myself
And that's another burden, oh yeah
Upon my shoulders
But nobody else can replace me
I raise the decibel levels
One and only 127 everywhere
In the end, we surviving again
I got you and you got me
We becoming the supreme team
You and me we fill up the blank
One and only 127 everywhere

You and me we make this possible, yeah
For us to never end, every night I pray, yeah
Reset the hands on my clock again
Wall to wall everywhere where
I'll tell you, my story yeah yeah

Right

Carve it in deeper
I always win
Even when I'm scared

Got my back up
Roll up the sleeves
Getting sweaty
Giving it my best at all times
Run like
It's the last time
These two palms
Held out for the gods to take
How far have I come?
May I be forever
May our stories never end
Hit the button
Now, at last
Turn on the lights
Cue the applause, ah

I always
Walk
Truly being myself
We on
Wall to wall
