One two let's go
The reason already resembles you
We say hello (hello)
The sun gets higher every day (hello)
The waves get higher

Without a word,
I've stayed by your side
Did you know?
Did you know my heart?

We're in front of a summer shower
Can't avoid the rain, we're getting wet

In my heart,
Your feelings grow one by one
For you
To you, to you, to you
As dazzling as it is
I hope I'll be remembered for a long time
Again and again and again
With you once again
Ha ha ha
This summer once again

Yeah yeah yeah
It was a hot summer
Didn't have to say it
To feel the vibe
I saw your eyes and bomber
Though we said goodbye the moment I knew about the fluttering
On windy days, on summer days, will you remember me?
Ps, if I can say one more thing
We weren't just a coincidence back then
Uh people call it love
While I be calling you
Like this season that came back
Let's go to that summer noon

We're in front of the summer sun
Without any shade to escape the light
We're facing each other

In my heart,
Your feelings grow one by one
For you
To you, to you, to you
As dazzling as it is
I hope I'll be remembered for a long time
Again and again and again
With you once again

Again 'n again again again
Again 'n again again again

The twinkling stars
In the night sky are for you
To you, to you, to you
As much as I waited
I'll tell you my heart-pounding confession
Again and again and again
(I never let you down)
This summer once again
Ha ha ha
My heart once again
My heart once again
