The lights falling like they're breaking
Past the sun shining on us
Ride the waves and go
The sounds I can hear
The island that's brighter than any dream
When I reach it with my two feet

The sky that appeared like one two
Is calling for us

Holding your small hand that's prettier than the ocean
This place where
We're dreaming the same dream
Is paradise paradise
Paradise-dise-dise

I like your smile that's brighter than the stars
This place where
We're dreaming the same dream
Is paradise paradise
Paradise-dise-dise

Like the ones I drew when I was young
I feel like tomorrow is gonna be filled
With dreams and thrills
The mysterious blue light
That is wrapping around that cloud
It falls on your two eyes

Without realizing, my heart is fluttering
I want to go together with you

Holding your small hand that's prettier than the ocean
This place where
We're dreaming the same dream
Is paradise paradise
Paradise-dise-dise

I like your smile that's brighter than the stars
This place where
We're dreaming the same dream
Is paradise paradise
Paradise-dise-dise

This blue island
Blow refreshingly into me
This island resembles you
The waves only heard by us two
This blinding island
With the glittering sand
This island where I walk with you
Like this we fill up this summer

The warm song that is Left in our memories
Riding on the wind,
I run to you right now
