I wanna be your somebody (Ya)

The screen you play with your fingers
Your feelings came touching through
I'll keep away everything that hurts you, wherever you are
Can you feel it? Can you feel it?

Right now, connecting softly
Right now (Na-na-na), laughing together
Right now (Na-na), living this moment
Right now (Na-na), there never is a same today
Right now

What happened to our days
Did the unseen change? Did you forget the loneliness?
Still by my side, your and my heart (Ya)
I've noticed right now (Right now)
Every little smile and gesture (Yeah)
Every piece of you, everything was a miracle

Your smile on that screen, hiding my feeling (Oh no, yeah)
I'll let you calm when you are damaged
Yes, with all my heat
Can you feel it? Can you feel it?

Right now (Oh), things to protect
Right now (Yeah), nothing's as important
Right now (Oh no, no, no), living this moment
Right now (Now), there is never a same today
Right now

Hope this reaches you
You are always in my hands
When you are sad, I'm the one
I'll give you everything

I wanna be your somebody (Wanna be your somebody, yeah)
Why don't you be my somebody? (Be my somebody right now, oh)
I wanna be your somebody (Wanna be your somebody, hoo)
Why don't you be my somebody? (I wanna be, I wanna be)

Right now, connecting softly
Right now (Now), laughing together

Right now (Now, now), there is never a same today, right now
Right now, right now, right now
