It's all about the beginning (Listen)

Feel the loud shout of the universe (Showtime)

Hey, when you hit the floor

We make the world stop

Let's fall deep into it

Fill us with light (Fill us with light)

So that anywhere in this darkness

I can see you brightly

You're my world, my universe

I can do anything

You're my star, my victory

High five in this joy

So here we are, I'm running to you

The only one shining like a meteor

My destiny, my ace making me move

Yeah, nothing's gonna stop us now

What you got? What's a lot ain't enough

Stepping on the ground, pivot

The only center of my universe, ayy, ayy

Swear to God (Let's play ball)

Girl, you know you got that walk (Let's play ball)

Stepping on the ground together, pivot (Yo, you're my universe)
Let's go spinning, I be singing

You got what I want
What I wanted in the middle of burning thirst
I know what you want
My universe opening its eyes

Even if that star crosses across my universe
And vanishes into a moment of time
The remaining light stays and strokes us
The beautiful acappella of the two of us
Yeah, we about to ball out (Ball out)
The mischief of the stars often hiding (Swipe)
I can only see you even when it's dark

Knockin', knockin' on
In the world of the two of us
(Knock, knock)
There's no meaningless time
Listen to it at this moment

You're my world, my universe
I can do anything
You're my star, my victory
High five in this joy
So here we are, I'm running to you
The only one shining like a meteor
My destiny, my ace making me move
Yeah, nothing's gonna stop us now

Feel each other, I'm not afraid
We're connected (Touch me now)
I hug you, wandering in darkness
It can't hurt me now (Hurt me now)
Even though the fragmented light
Fades away in the blueness (Fades away)
No one can dare to change my world
Oh, woah, oh

You're my world, my universe (You are my world)
I can do anything (Yeah)
You're my star, my victory (Oh, you're my star)
High five in this joy
So here we are, I'm running to you
The only one shining like a meteor
My destiny, my ace making me move
Yeah, nothing's gonna stop us now
