It's like a maze without an answer
In this roughly broken memory
The endless night
Wake up a different you inside
Find yourself at the end of this long tunnel
Follow the path in your subconscious, go on

So let's just wake up this world
Let's just wake up this world
Let's just wake up this world

Let's just wake up this world

Your spreading dream
The beat of your heart is getting louder
The noise that shakes you up, all of it
It's an illusion that'll go away when you open your eyes

Oh the moment you open your eyes to a new sense
Your heart will be connected to one world
Feel yourself in the deep music
(Come on, come on, let me show you)

So let's just wake up this world
Let's just wake up this world
Let's just wake up this world
