

Better For It

Ne-Yo

I wash my hands of this situation,
Of this complication that you call a relationship.
Scrub these walls, I might even repaint 'em
Cause your memory stained them
And this colour just ain't it
Scratch that idea, take this mess right here
Watch it burn, burn

Cause a loss in love is a lesson learned.
Oh I'm so much better for it.
I'm so much better for dusting you off my shoulders,
Knowing that I don't need you no more.
I'm so much better for it.

And I'm movin', cleanin' out my closet
And I'm a get rid of all of this
All of what you left in here
Uh, you've been officially evicted
Cause you just don't get it
So let me make it nice 'n' clear
Baby no more games
Love and respect and truthin'
You must learn, learn

But a loss in love is a lesson learned.
Oh I'm so much better for it.
I'm so much better for dusting you off my shoulders,
Knowing that I don't need you no more.
I'm so much better for it.
I'm so much better for it.
I'm so much better for dusting you off my shoulders,
Knowing that I don't need you no more.
I'm so much better for it.

And I'm better for no longer giving you
I'm gonna shoot me down out of the blue
Better for finally realisin' the truth
That I can do so much better than you

Oh I'm so much better for it.
I'm so much better for dusting you off my shoulders,
Knowing that I don't need you no more.
I'm so much better for it.
I'm so much better for it.
I'm so much better for dusting you off my shoulders,
Knowing that I don't need you no more.
I'm so much better for it.
I'm so much better for it.
I'm so much better for it.
