

Can't Stop

Ne-Yo

Put your pictures away,
Anything that might bring up,
Memories of the days and the nights we spent in love,
You were my favorite song,
Baby tell me why we had to turn the radio off

Girl I ain't tripping on you
I'm just fine
You hardly ever even cross my mind
Even though a blind man could look in my face and just know that that's a lie
I'm barely treading water saying I'm alright

Cause I can't stop crying
And I can't stop asking why
But I can't stop lying
And if you ask me I deny
That I can't stop crying
On the outside I'm alright
But I'm dying on the inside

Saw you out yesterday
And I knew that you saw me
You was with your homies
And I was with some random peeps
Suddenly we caught eyes
And I looked away before it got too hard to breathe

Girl I ain't tripping on you
I'm just fine
You hardly ever even cross my mind
Even though a blind man could look in my face and just know that that's a lie
I'm barely treading water saying I'm alright

Cause I can't stop crying
And I can't stop asking why
But I can't stop lying
And if you ask me I deny
That I can't stop crying
On the outside I'm alright
But I'm dying on the inside
Girl I ain't tripping on you
I'm just fine
I don't even think about you babe
Even though a blind man could look in my face and just know that that's a lie
I'm barely treading water saying I'm alright

Cause I can't stop crying
And I can't stop asking why
But I can't stop lying
And if you ask me I deny
That I can't stop crying

On the outside I'm alright

I'm dying...
Girl you're killing me...
Dying on the inside...
Dying on the inside...
Killing me, killing me babe
