

Oh! She's a queen, she's a nag
She's a dream, she's a headache
More than a normal cat could ever take
But little momma fits me perfect
And inside I glow!
She's as mean as a daemon, but sweet as an angel
Don't know if I wanna kiss her or strangle
So many different size, different angles
That's just modern love!

I'm fixing [?] difficult, easy
Doesn't matter, she's the one I need!
She's the one I need!
Love is my [?] one she is right here
I'll be hers forever happily (ever happily)!

Gemini, I'm love with you my Gemini
Baby, you stay at the top of my mind
I'm holding up to your love, and girl I won't let go!
My Gemini, stay by my side, cause baby this time love never die s
I'm holding up to your love,
And girl I won't let go, my Gemini!

Uh, fake us a fantasy, but there is
You're everything and nothing, all in one (all in one)
And I could love you and hate you like one at the same time
Two size of the same beautiful dime
I will admit it can be confusing
Baby, but it's so much fun!

I'm flexing this party difficult, easy
Doesn't matter, she's the one I need!
She's the one I need!
Love is my [?] one she is right here
I'll be hers forever happily (ever happily)!
