Goodbye

Ne-Yo

Couldn't find the nice way
To say I'm leavin' today
Tried to write a letter
But curse words kept getting in the way
There has to be a nice way
To tell you how much I hate the way you walk
And talk and live and breathe and you're very face.
I'm trying to spare your feelings
To tell you that I wish that you would die
That'd just be wrong of me

So this is my goodbye song
Thanks for nothin' you
So this is my goodbye song that I dedicate to you

Oh,
At first I was just gonna leave,
Let you wake up suddenly
And see that I'm no longer there (I'm no longer there)
But instead just for a laugh,
I left your apartment trashed.
And this CD on the stairs,
When you wake up and turn it on, you will hear this song and by that time I'll be long gone.

So this is my goodbye song
Thanks for nothin' you
So this is my goodbye song that I dedicate to you

This is your song,
Hope that you enjoy it
