

How is it that when we go out
All together as one big crew
I try to chill with you, dance or whatever
And your home girl's more interested than you
She pays more attention to me than you lately
I'm tempted to pay attention too

If you let her take me from you
I guess I'll finally see
If you let her take me from you
You never wanted me
That this happened and it proves
That your love was never true
If you let her take me from you

She's always laughing and flirting with me
And you act like you don't even care
As a matter of fact you've been real distant lately
Acting like I'm not even there
She said that you don't deserve like me
I'm starting to think that she's right baby

If you let her take me from you
I guess I'll finally see
If you let her take me from you
You never wanted me
That this happened and it proves
That your love was never true
If you let her take me from you

Baby I tried to show some affection to you
You act like you got better things to do
If you want some money that's when it's cool
Baby girl I'm not a fool

If you let her take me from you
I guess I'll finally see
If you let her take me from you
You never wanted me
That this happened and it proves
That your love was never true
If you let her take me from you

Ooh baby
If you let her take me from you
I guess I'll finally see
If you let her take me from you
You never wanted me
That this happened and it proves
That your love was never true
If you let her take me from you

Take me from you, oh no
Take me from you, oh no
Take me from you, oh no
