

Put In Work

Ne-Yo

Oh oh oh ooo wow
Oh oh oh
Said it's 7 [?] your resume it wasn't clear enough Experience is what you lack
You haven't worked enough
Irrelevant to the position give it a hand (oh wow oh oh)
You're a part time should have been a full time man

Now you're coming running back
When your position is filled
He picked up right where you left
That's a job and that's a fact
Always puts from 9 to 5
Double shift in overtime
But u showed up late to work too many times

You gotta put in work to show me that you love me
Get down and hit the dirt
The job is worth the salary
You gotta put in work
Follow directions make it work
You got your feelings hurt
Cause you couldn't put it work
Nooo
You gotta put in work to show me that you love me
Get down and hit the dirt
The job is worth the salary
You gotta put in work
Follow directions make it work
You got your feelings hurt
Cause you couldn't put it work
Noo

You're the typical temporary never finished plan
Type of guy that I need, completes all my demands
You got fired he got hired he works hard you're always tired
I think it's best that you leave no longer my employee

Now you're coming running back
When your position is filled
He picked up right where you left
That's a job and that's a fact
Always put from 9 to 5
Double shift in overtime
But u showed up late to work too many times

Get down and hit the dirt
The job is worth the salary

You gotta put in work
Follow directions make it work
You got your feelings hurt
Cause you couldn't put it work
Nooo

I admit it a couple times
I never was on your mind
So now it's time to hit the roooooad
It's over so finally
Replace you with someone who be
Promoting two positions of loving and kissing me

You gotta put in work to show me that you love me
Get down and hit the dirt
The job is worth the salary
You gotta put in work
Follow directions make it work
You got your feelings hurt
Cause you couldn't put it work
Nooo
