

Queen

Ne-Yo

Circumstance and situation
Don't dull your shine
I could see the beauty in you
If I were blind

And I'm pleased to make your acquaintance
I'm not sure what your name is
But if I had to guess based off what I've seen

May I call you Queen?
May I call you Queen? Yeah
May I call you Queen?
May I call you Queen?

Don't you dare let them
Make you forget just who you are
Who you are
I can tell
That you control the moon and mend the stars
And you've conquered my heart

So I'm pleased to make your acquaintance
I'm not sure what your name is
But if I had to guess based off what I've seen

May I call you Queen?
Oh may I?
Oh may I?

All I have is all I am
But all I want is to be your man
So with my everything, here I stand
Asking...

Can I call you Queen?
Can I call you Queen?
Can I call you Queen?
Can I call you Queen?

May I, oh may I?
Oh may I, I?
