

Right Here

Ne-Yo

The sun stops shining
And the sky starts falling
And the world stops spinning
And she's right here, she's right here
Stars stop twinkling
And the ocean is dry
The wind stops blowing
And she's right here, she's right here

Come what may, come what will
Come whatever, she'll be right here still
So when I get old, the world gets cold
One thing I know
She's right here, she's right here

No matter what the world decides to throw at me
She's right here
There's only one thing I can guarantee
She's right here
Who I can depend on and just where she'll be
Said she's right here
She's right here, she's right here
She's right here

The fans stop screaming
And the checks stop coming
The records stop selling
And I'm right here, I'm right here
My belly starts growing
And all my clothes don't fit no more
But I'm right here, I'm right here

Come what may, come what will
Come whatever, I'll be right here still
So when I get old, the world gets cold
One thing I know
I'm right here, I'm right here

No matter what the world decides to throw at me
I'm right here
There's only one thing I can guarantee
I'm right here
Boy you can depend on and just where I'll be
I'm right here, I'm right here, I'm right here

Through my good days
Through my bad days
And in between
When the Kingdom is crumbling
I'm still a Queen
Said at my worst or at my best
Cause both she's seen
I said it really don't matter
I don't care
Cause the loves in me

No matter what the world decides to throw at me

I'm right here
There's only one thing I can guarantee
I'm right here
Boy you can depend on and just where I'll be
I'm right here, I'm right here
I'm right here, I'm right here
I'm right here
She's right here... I'm right here...