

Same

Ne-Yo

She be playin' me music
That I don't really like
But it makes her feel sexy
So it's alright

She be wantin' to go to restaurants
Where they serve shit I would never eat
But she say it's an aphrodisiac
So I tried a lil bit yea

We don't got a lot in common
We don't like a lot of the same things
More than most of the time
I find myself compromising

She's up when I'm down
She's on when I'm off
But when it come to love
We're cut from the same freaky piece of cloth

So we're so different when it come to everything
But when it come to love we're the same
Same same
So we're so different when it come to everything
But when it come to love we're the same
Same same
When it come to love we're the same, yea
So when it come to love we're the same, yea
So when it come to love

I don't like the furniture
But I let her go and pick it out
(Let her go and pick it out)
Really I don't mind the love seat
Cus that's where she like to get down
(Get down)

So we can either watch a movie
She gon talk through the whole thing
(Whole thing)
But all during the previews
She give me that good
(Think about it)

We don't got a lot in common
We don't like a lot of the same things
More than most of the time
I find myself compromising

She's up when I'm down
She's on when I'm off
But when it come to love
We're cut from the same freaky piece of cloth

So we're so different when it come to everything
But when it come to love we're the same
Same same

So we're so different when it come to everything
But when it come to love we're the same
Same same
When it come to love we're the same, yea
So when it come to love we're the same, yea

I like it how she like it
She likes it fast, I take it slow
I have a guess, she wanna know
And that's the way it go
I like the hot, she like the low
But when it come to sexual
Baby we're so compatible

(2x)

We're so different when it come to everything
But when it come to love we're the same
Same same
So we're so different when it come to everything
But when it come to love we're the same
Same same
When it come to love we're the same, yea
So when it come to love we're the same, yea
