

Should Be You

Ne-Yo

Don't you hate a coulda woulda shoulda? (oh oh no, oh oh no)
Coulda did what it did why ya shoulda shoulda? (oh oh no, oh oh no)

If I had a dollar for every should be, know how rich I would be Like they say it is what it is, not what it could be,
Can't cry feel guilt over spilled milk,
I'm too fly, I'm too cool, word to Versace silk,
And my watch be filled with mad diamonds
I've got good watches just bad timing
The chick I met at the club was cute,
Still feel like I'm getting brain from the substitute,
'Cause this ain't you and that ain't me,
Claim you happy then why you're so mad at me?
Can't hold on to what you had just what you got,
You should be here, but you're not.

I'm doing it again [echo]
What I told myself I would not do [echo], oh
It's 4: 15 a.m. I'm sitting here drinking, reminiscing of you [echo], oh
And how I used to let you smoke even though I don't
You get blowed then we both get low
As I lay here with some girl I don't know
In the back of my mind one million times
I tell myself...

It should be you, should be you
Should be you with me right now
Said it should be you (should be you), should be you (should be you)
Should be you with me right now oh oh

As I watch her sleep, all that I can think
She's beautiful (beautiful but she's not you)
Love for just a night, then out of my life (out of my life...)
Damn why can't I do this right?
When you told me you wanted to leave (wanted to leave...)
I pretended it didn't hurt me (didn't hurt me...)
But ever lay here I can hardly breathe,
Laying next to she when in reality, it should be...

It should be you, (oh) should be you (should be you...)
Should be you with me (with me...) right now (right now...)
Said it should be you (should be you) (oh), should be you (should be you) (o h uh oh)
Should be you and with me right now (uh with me right now oh)

Uhh uhh should be you, should be you baby oh oh.

Uh Wish I knew then what I know now and there was some way, somehow,
Wish that was someway that I could go back,
It's obvious and there's no doubt,
Made a mistake and I'm down and now,
Uh girl it should be.

Check this out
My life, lights cameras fame and action,
Feeling dreams from all this proper planes I'm catchin
Willing to trade all the flashy chains I'm flashin for a night

Back up for us, exchangin pain and passion, (let's go)
Romances, kinda like the Phantom doors you used to ride
Cause it's tryin to open up, it's like suicide (suicide)
God teaches lessons every day,
You was all I needed like meth and mary j (come on)
The sun don't shine forever
Any time that we fall that just means we just climb together (together)
Guess we avoided what we could've went through (yeah)
That don't change the fact that it should've been you.

Girl it should be you (ooooohhhh...) (whoa... oh... should be you)

It should be you, should be you
Should be you with me right now
(Should be you and me, girl)
Said it should be you (should be you), should be you (should be you)
Should be you with me right now oh oh

Ohh... Said it should be you... it should be you... you... woah...
I said it should be you... it should be you... oh oh oh oh
