

Two

Ne-Yo

I don't care what they say
About us when we walk away, yeah
They don't live in our space
We fly million light years away, hey
Alone, alone in our own world
Home is what you are to me, girl

So let them say whatever they want to
Cause all that matters here is me and you
Let the world fade right out of view
And that's alright with me
Cause all that I need is to be is two

They speak their minds, speak their peace, yeah
Well if that's what they think shouldn't mean a thing to me
Ooh see the heart and the mind rarely find anything to which they agree
But when it comes to you, I don't mind this
You make me happy
Oh woah

So let them say whatever they want to
Cause all that matters here is me and you
Let the world fade right out of view
And that's alright with me
Cause all that I need is to be is two

And I vow from this day on
That you will never be alone
If they approve or if they don't

So let them say whatever they want to
Cause all that matters here is me and you
Let the world fade right out of view
And that's alright with me
Cause all that I need is to be...
Oh let them say whatever they want to Cause all that matters here is me and you, ooh
Let the world fade right out of view
And that's alright with me
Cause all that I need is to be is two
