

Imagine

Nea

I had all this love but nowhere to put it until there was you
I had all this time but no one to give it to til there was you

I was full of feelings
And and always hoping
Without a meaning
Just overflowing
It was only this
And then it was you

I've been wasting years of emotions
Spilling all my tears to feel something
If that's how much I could love the wrong ones

Imagine how I'm gonna love you
Imagine how I'm gonna love you
Imagine how I'm gonna love you
Imagine, imagine

Take a metaphor
It's like a dead garden and then it's in bloom
It's the type of call
You didn't know that you wanted until it reach you

I was full of feelings
And and always hoping
Without a meaning
Just overflowing
It was only me
And then it was you

Imagine how I'm gonna love you
Imagine how I'm gonna love you
Imagine how I'm gonna love you
Imagine, imagine

Cus I've been holding on to things that wasn't right
(And told myself it was too late to change my mind)
Been tryna turn a spark into a forest fire

Yea, I've been tryna fall the way they do in the movies
I forced my feelings til I just couldn't do it
But if that's how much I could love the wrong ones

Imagine how I'm gonna love you
Imagine how I'm gonna love you
Imagine how I'm gonna love you
Imagine, imagine
