

Hey, yeah, hey, yeah, yeah, yeah (Oh)

Well, I get way too drunk

And I'm always too late to the dinners we have with our parents
(Oh)

And I work all the time

Then I fight about nothing and don't wanna talk 'bout my feelings
(Oh)

I try to keep it cool

And turn it down for you

But I always do the same (Oh)

And all my friends say, boy

You're too good for me, but I want, I want you anyways

And I know I don't fit in, but I want, but I want you anyways

Only you, only me, and it's all that I need

Only you, only me, only you

Boy, you're too good for me, but I want, but I want you anyways

I don't pick up the phone

And it's taking me hours to answer a text when you need me (Oh), mm

And I ask you for space (And I ask you for space)

But when you stuck away I go crazy for you just to see me, yeah, hey, yeah, yeah

I try to keep it cool

And turn it down for you

But I always do the same (Oh)

And all my friends say, boy

You're too good for me, but I want, but I want you anyways

And I know I don't fit in, but I want, but I want you anyways

Only you, only me, and it's all that I need

Only you, only me, only you

Boy, you're too good for me, but I want, but I want you anyways

Boy, you're too good for me, but I want, but I

(But I want, but I want what I want)

You're too good for me, but I want, but I

(But I want, but I want, but I want)

Boy, you're too good for me, but I want, but I

(But I want, but I want what I want)

Boy, you're too good for me, but I want, but I want you anyways
