

Dumbstruck Dumbfk

Neck Deep

How many scars have you got?
How many tears have you dropped?
Suffering
Do you like who you are?
Do you like who you are?
I'm struggling to be the man that you want
But I'll give what I got Promises
I really like who you are
I really like who you are
But I'm a useless, doofus, I'm always confused
And you get no improvement whatsoever
Her friends say she can do better, so

Before I surrender
At least can I get a little something to remember before we say goodbye?
"Don't be so hollow, don't be so dead inside
Those tees I borrowed, you'll never get 'em back, goodbye"

I never know when to stop
I'm trying to think, can you not?
Punishing
I'm alright if you are
I'm alright if you are
I gotta say that she's the best that I got Thinks I'm a freak but it's hot
Lucky me
I think she might take it off
I think she might take it off
I'm a dumbstruck, dumbfuck, head like a dumb truck
Oh, and the more you talk the less I listen
Can't help thinking what you're missing, so

Before I surrender
At least can I get a little something to remember before we say goodbye?
"Don't be so hollow, don't be so dead inside
Those tees I borrowed, you'll never get 'em back, goodbye"

Do you like who you are?
I really like who you are
I'm alright if you are
I think she might call it off

Before I surrender
At least can I get a little something to remember
Before I surrender
At least can I get a little something to remember before we say goodbye?
"Don't be so hollow, don't be so dead inside
Those tees I borrowed, you'll never get 'em back, goodbye"
