

Worth It

Neck Deep

Can you feel it
In the spaces all around and in between it
Did you mean it
When you said I hate you
Cause I fucking believed it
If you can't see the signs
And I can't reach your mind
I'd be scared of what I might find
And I'm sorry
I'll take the blame but you came at me kamikaze
A tsunami is setting our way
So as your apology

We really should have thought it through
Just what this would do to me and you
So ask yourself is it worth it
Yeah take it from me
Nobody is perfect
Cause all I want to do is fall asleep with you
To drift away and hold onto
Is it worth it
Tell me is it
Worth it?

Is it pointless
To be helpless, optimistic, non-conformist
Am I annoying?
I try as hard as I could but you couldn't ignore it
Cause I'm so sick and tired
Of these late night and getting wired
On our fucked insecurities

We really should have thought it through
Just what this would do to me and you
So ask yourself is it worth it
Yeah take it from me
Nobody is perfect
Cause all I want to do is fall asleep with you
To drift away and hold onto
Is it worth it
Tell me is it
Worth it?

Can you feel it?
In the spaces all around and in between it
Did you mean it?
Cause I fucking believed it

Think it through
And what this could do to me and you
Yeah ask yourself is it worth it
To pour the gasoline if it's already burning
Cause all I want to do is fall asleep with you
To drift away and hold onto
Is it worth it
Tell me is it
Worth it?

Ask yourself is it worth it?
Cause all I want to do is fall asleep with you
Is it worth it?
