

Realm of Terror

Necrophobic

Promised an eternal life
You raise your hands to the sky
You're blindfolded by the church
Scared to see Reality

Pay for immortality
How foolish can you be
You're a victim of
The empire of Christianity

Turn your back against I all
Ignore the preachers prayers
Break the spell they cast on you
Don't sell your soul to God

The Diabolic trinity
Awaits your final call
And sets you free from the realm
The realm of terror

Confess your sins to the priest
He and God will forgive
Then he'll laugh at what you're done
Forgiveness that made him rich

They say you have to live your life
According to the holy book
You might as well live your life
According to a pile of puke

Turn your back against I all
Ignore the preachers prayers
Break the spell they cast on you
Don't sell your soul to God

The Diabolic trinity
Awaits your final call
And sets you free from the realm
The realm of terror

Praise the inverted cross
Do what you want to do
Satan is the only lord
Hell is where you want to be

Lord of darkness, hear them call
People realize the truth
Welcome down to hell
Where you live eternal life

Turn your back against I all
Ignore the preachers prayers
Break the spell they cast on you
Don't sell your soul to God

The Diabolic trinity
Awaits your final call

And sets you free from the realm
The realm of terror
