

The Infernal Depths of Eternity

Necrophobic

The awakened pulse of a blackened star
The dawn of nightfall
The bright unlight shine wide and far
Enchant enthrall
Shatter my fears
The broken glass of a thousand spheres
Pierce the clouds to still my awoken hunger

Death, unchain the beast
Death, as the fire within is released

The infernal depths of eternity whispering beyond
I hear the serpent's whispering respond
The strangler and the wide awake
The vision and the twisting snake
Connect the worlds to still my awoken hunger

I call on thee, demon god with crimson scales adorned
I call on thee of sacred blood, take my soul beyond
Now answer me, serpent king, deity of the night
Now answer me, fiery wing, save me from the light

Hail - the dead
Hail - the dark
Hail - the night
Hail - the silence

The stormy winds of eternity
Haunting life's debris
And fools set sails to flee the void on the raging sea
Drag me down underneath, unchain my soul beneath
Fill my lungs with your blood to still my awoken hunger
