

Just A Little Bit Better

Ned LeDoux

Just a little bit better, I wanna say
I want to be just a little bit better each and every day
And it really don't matter, how good or bad you feel
You're gonna find that a little bit better is a real big deal

Walking down the road I saw a man
Smile on his face, and a hammer in his hand
He looked so happy just a swingin' away
I thought to myself I wanna be that way

Just a little bit better, I wanna say
I want to be just a little bit better each and every day
And it really don't matter, how good or bad you feel
You're gonna find that a little bit better is a real big deal

Yeah a whole lot of people
They wanna sit around and cry
Yeah and they don't change nothin'
And nothin' ever changes, and they don't know why

So baby this time when I hit that door
I wanna be something that's a little bit more
A little less dark, a little more light
Try a little harder and things just might

Get a little bit better, I wanna say
I want to be just a little bit better each and every day
And it really don't matter, how good or bad you feel
You're gonna find that a little bit better is a real big deal

Just a little bit better
Mmmhmmm
Yeah just a little bit better now
