

Everybody

Needtobreathe

Every little thing I do
Just seem to get in the way
Of what you want from me
A get caught up in all my dreaming
Keep forgetting that I'm leaving
Just to where that you want me

And I don't know
And I can't see
Just why that I should be here
And I complain
When I disagree
You're the only one who knows me

Everybody only sees
Everybody else but me
Everybody doesn't know that
It's all right here
It don't matter what I know
Take a minute let 'em show me

It's all right here

Every single time I start
To get ahead of myself
I lose sight of where I am
Somehow you always keep on proving
That somewhere through me you are moving
And that you are in control

And I don't know
And I can't see
Just why that I should be here
And I complain
When I disagree
You're the only one who knows me

Everybody only sees
Everybody else but me
Everybody doesn't know that
It's all right here
It don't matter what I know
Take a minute let 'em show me

And I don't know
And I can't see
Just why that I should be here
And I complain
When I disagree
You're the only one who knows me

Everybody only sees
Everybody else but me

Everybody only sees
Everybody else but me
(Everybody, yeah yeah)
(Everybody, yeah yeah)
(Everybody doesn't know that)
(Everybody, yeah yeah)

It's all right here!
